

WRITERS' WORKSHOP

KEEPING IT REAL: HOW TO WRITE A YOUNG ADULT NOVEL THAT ROCKS

- ★SATURDAY, FEB. 1, 10:30 A.M. - 12:30 P.M.
- ★N.E. SPRUILL OAKS LIBRARY
- ★9560 SPRUILL ROAD, 30022

When not chatting on Facebook or tweeting her latest travel adventures, Jana Oliver loves to tell stories for both adults and teens. Her latest young adult novel, Briar Rose (Macmillan Children's Books), is a twisty and dark retelling of Sleeping Beauty set in south Georgia, with Hoodoo, steampunk and vengeful Civil War ghosts.

Visitors are always welcome at her website: WWW.JanaOliver.com

Free & Open to the Public

Join young adult author Jana Oliver as she shares writing tips, techniques, and in-the-trenches anecdotes on how to craft a novel that teens will love to read, and recommend to their friends.

To register: e-mail SCBWI Southern Breeze local liaison
Stephanie Moody - Moodyviews@bellsouth.net or phone Karen at Spruill Oaks 770-360-8820

Sponsored by The Friends of the Northeast Spruill Oaks Library, The Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators and Southern Breeze

